

Conference Invitation

On behalf of the Department of Quality and Environmental Management at the Wrocław University of Economics and Students Scientific Circle "Oikos" we would like to invite you to the

II Conference of Young Scientists

“Contemporary conditions of environmental management”

which will take place on 6-7 November 2014 in Jelenia Góra.

The leading ideas of the conference are:

- 1) the integration of young researchers and students working on the issues of environmental management,
- 2) active discussion (the presentation should mainly consist of the key theses and / or conclusions),
- 3) the integration and exchanging the opinions with practitioners.

Exemplary issues, connected with environmental management, elaborated during the conference:

- 1) environmental aspects,
- 2) legal aspects,
- 3) economic aspects,
- 4) technical aspects,
- 5) philosophical aspects,
- 6) connected with responsible management.

We cordially invite you!

President of the Organizing Committee

dr Bartosz Bartniczak
